Q8 Which statement comes closer to your view: "President Trump should make decisions about childhood vaccines," or "Doctors and scientists should make decisions about childhood vaccines?"

"President Trump should make decisions about childhood vaccines"	14%
"Doctors and scientists should make decisions about childhood vaccines"	71%
Not sure	15%

Q9 I'm going to give you some statements about President Trump's childhood vaccines executive order, and ask if hearing them makes you feel much more favorably, somewhat more favorably, somewhat less favorably or much less favorably towards Republicans in Congress, or if it doesn't make a difference. Here's the first one: Critics of this executive order say that it's especially dangerous at a time where the US is already experiencing an outbreak of Measles and several other diseases, with more than 2,400 confirmed cases this year. Measles was declared eliminated in the United States in 2000 but has now returned as vaccines have been reduced. Does hearing this make you feel much more favorably, somewhat more favorably, somewhat less favorably or much less favorably towards Republicans in Congress, or does it not make a difference?

Much more favorably	15%
Somewhat more favorably	7%
Somewhat less favorably	5%
Much less favorably	45%
It doesn't make a difference	25%
Not sure	3%

Q10 Here's the next one: Critics say that the Trump administration ignored the scientific evidence of the impact of these vaccines and followed debunked misinformation about autism's link to vaccines instead. Does hearing this make you feel much more favorably, somewhat more favorably, somewhat less favorably or much less favorably towards Republicans in Congress, or does it not make a difference?

Much more favorably	17%
Somewhat more favorably	5%
Somewhat less favorably	9%
Much less favorably	44%
It doesn't make a difference	23%
Not sure	2%

Q11 Here's the next one: Critics say the Trump administration overturned a system of childhood vaccines that has been in place for over 30 years and that has been successful at minimizing the spread of preventable diseases like mumps and eradicating measles. Does hearing this make you feel much more favorably, somewhat more favorably, somewhat less favorably or much less favorably towards Republicans in Congress, or does it not make a difference?

Much more favorably	18%
Somewhat more favorably	6%
Somewhat less favorably	6%
Much less favorably	45%
It doesn't make a difference	23%
Not sure	3%

Public Policy Polling

Q12 Here's the last one: By undoing the recommendations for vaccines for children, parents who want these vaccines may pay significantly more—additional copays and visits—raising costs for patients and families drastically. Does hearing this make you feel much more favorably, somewhat more favorably, somewhat less favorably or much less favorably towards Republicans in Congress, or does it not make a difference?

Much more favorably	16%
Somewhat more favorably	7%
Somewhat less favorably	6%
Much less favorably	48%
It doesn't make a difference	21%
Not sure	3%

Q13 If you learned that Robert F. Kennedy Jr. and members of his family would financially benefit from decisions he makes about vaccines and vaccine policy, would that make you much more likely, somewhat more likely, somewhat less likely, or much less likely to support his policies, or would it not make a difference?

Much more likely	6%
Somewhat more likely	4%
Somewhat less likely	8%
Much less likely	50%
It wouldn't make a difference	29%
Not sure	3%

Q14 In the 2024 election for President, did you vote for Republican Donald Trump, Democrat Kamala Harris, someone else, or did you not vote in the election?
